STUDENT LIFE

The Inside Story

Homecoming '88
"Paradise"

Homecoming week was kicked off October 8th with the "Bon Voyage Dance" at Seager Lounge. "Dinner at the Captain's Table" was held at Kaufman Dining Hall on October 10th followed by the movie "Club Paradise." The Cage set the stage for "Casino Night in the Caribbean." Some other activities were the Blood Drive, The Newlywed Game, Tug of War, and the annual Pep Rally, Game and Dance. The Pep Rally was a huge success along with the game which the Cardinals won against Illinois Wesleyan, 30-17. All in all Homecoming week was great fun and truly a week in Paradise.

Junior attendants were Rhea Reed and Karl Brooks.

Tug of War winners - How tough they were!

Ed Clark looked spiffy at the Homecoming dance held at the Willowbrook Banquet Hall.

Rae Robinson, Walter Johnson, and Anna Williams are showing their school spirit at the big game.

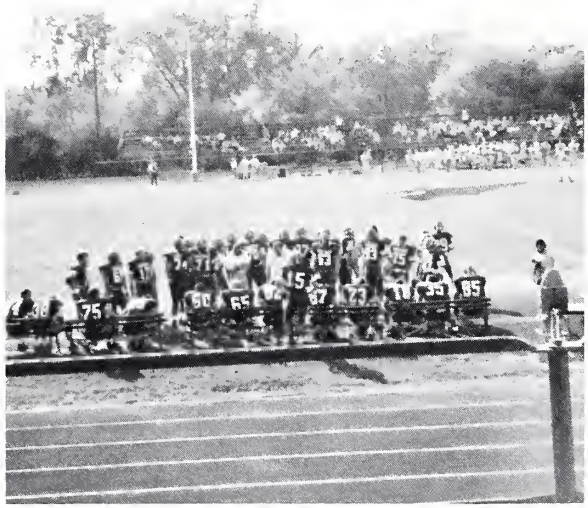
Playing the Newlywed Game can be fun!

Kim Reimer, Kim Tweet, and Michele Laskonis watch the Cardinals devour their prey at the game.

Coach Conner rials up the team for a big win.

At the dance, Tricia Williams, Tracy Smith, and Rogene "Mookie" Avrey show off their pretty smiles and their sharp outfits.

Mary Milnamow and her men await anxiously the announcement of the 1988 Queen and Casanovea.



These pretty smiling faces were nominees for Homecoming attendants.

Michele Henke demonstrates her shuffling skills at Casino Night in the Cage.

You better not mess with these tough guys.

A Dazzling Day For Dads

November 5, 1988 was the day for dads across the country to come to North Central to visit their sons or daughters for the annual Dad's Day festivities. The exciting day began with meeting with the president for punch and cookies. Then down to the football field to watch the Cardinals trample over Drake University. After the game, dads and students got to try their luck playing poker and blackjack at the Casino extravaganza. The day concluded with the play "The Rivals."

Congratulations Dad! You've won a football.

The Cardinals fight for their points.

Melissa proudly shows off her parents.

If you don't move, I'm going to hurt you.

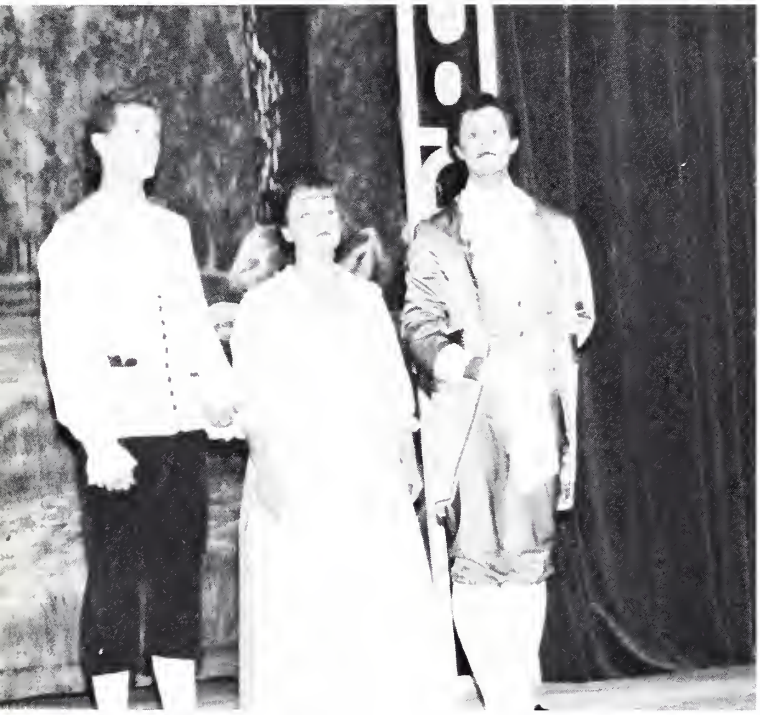
Scene Set for 'The Rivals'

The fall play "The Rivals," a comedy set in the year 1775, was performed at Pfeiffer Hall on November 4, 5, 11, and 12. This year's play was directed by Chris Connelly. It is a play about love and relationships between families and friends. "The Rivals" depicts a world in which artifice and ingenuity often take precedence over common sense. This attitude was also very much in evidence in the theatre of 1775. Judyne Mikale said, "The large amount of practice time was hard to get used to at first, but after a week I got used to it."

Dr. Allen Vander Meulen surprises his son by telling him he will obtain a fortune.



Jeff Schaetzke, Gabrielle Toerpe, and Tim Gossett take a final bow.

Kelly Thomas tells Gregg Lloyd that he cannot partake in this duel.

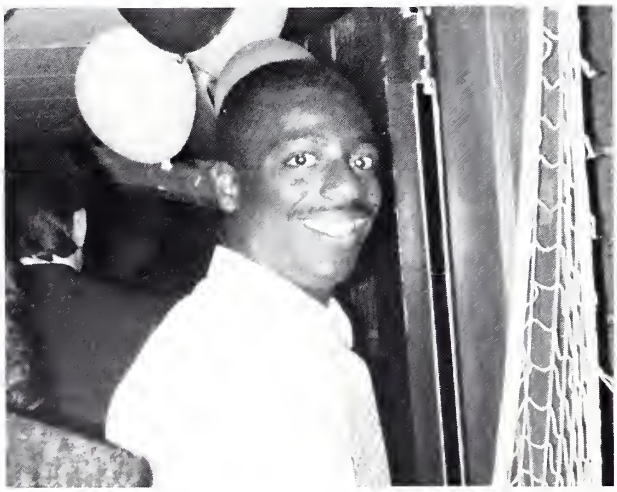
A happy ending-couples are re-united.

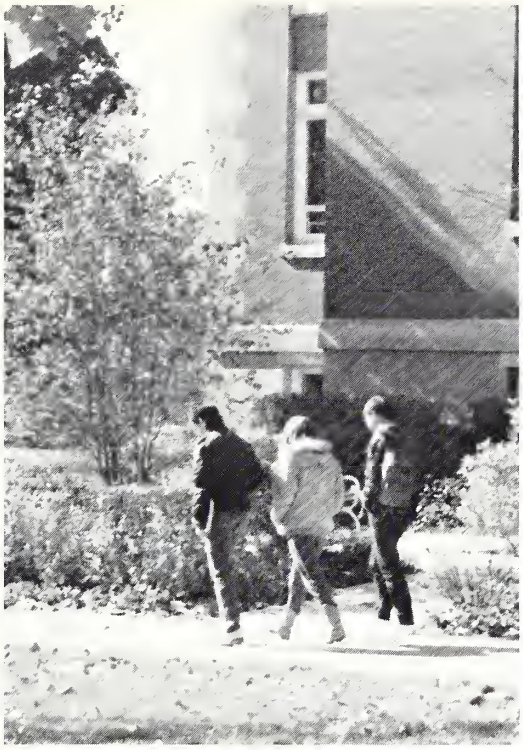
David Frogge declares his love for Kathy Scott.

Judyne Mikale and Todd Fuja in a lover's quarrel.

Victoria Mahl gives a typical temper tantrum.

Fun Filled Fall





Once Upon A Time . . .

Winter Carnival week was filled with activities that happened "Once Upon a Time." Soap Opera Bingo brought out the "soap" in all of us, while Family Feud featured some of NCC's finest families. For the night owls, tuck-ins were an extra treat and Cinderella was shown for the imagination. To finish the week with a magical touch, the annual Winter Dance was held at the Long Island Sound Banquet Room in Aurora. London USA kept everyone moving throughout the night. CUAB captured the moment once again.

Siblings

Go Downtown

Early in the morning of February 25, siblings came from all over to join their NCC brother or sister for the annual Sibling's Day! This year the group went downtown to The Museum of Science and Industry for the morning. There they saw the sights and sounds of the past, present, and future. Lunch was held at the 50's McDonalds on Ontario Avenue. After a relaxing lunch in such a historic place, the group moved on to the Adler Planetarium where everyone reclined and watched a spectacular sky and star show. The day concluded for many with the basketball game or the musical.

I wonder what's in here?

North Central's Guys and Dolls

This year's winter musical, Guys and Dolls, was presented to a full house at Pfeiffer Auditorium. The musical ran for two weekends, Feb. 24-26 and March 3-4. It was a musical about guys and gals hopeful for relationships and the illegal, endless search for a place to gamble. The many actors and actresses showed their vocal talents and captured the audience in a display of humor and excellent acting. The NCC band accompanied the production giving the audience an extra treat. A standing ovation ended the musical on a high note.

Come on kiss her!

Look at those gorgeous legs.

What a couple.

What A Winter!!

This Winter term was filled with many exciting activities for everyone. CUAB brought us Dennis Miller from Saturday Night Live. His dry sense of humor was quite a change from the other comedians North Central has had in the past. There was a talent show with many students and faculty participating. RHA had their second annual Procrastination Dance. CIA sponsored another ski trip. The students joined forces to express their feelings towards the proposed restructuring. All in all another winter term flew by with cold weather, fun activities, and happy memories.

Motivationally Speaking

This year's Leadership Conference was held on January 14th in the Activities Center. Jayne Lybrand, a nationally known communication specialist, was the guest speaker. Her Texan accent, and her words of advice really got the student body involved. Jayne talked about the art of communicating. During the lunch presentation, Jayne got the crowd really psyched up. Leadership Conference is for all students to participate in. There are group meetings, lunch, and then a motivational speaker. The whole day was a success.

Football-1988
A Year Of Recognition

This year's 1988 Cardinal Football Team finished with an overall record of 4 and 5. Highlighting the season was a 30 to 17 Homecoming victory over Illinois Wesleyan. Led by Coach Paul Connor the team also had five football players named to the 1988 All-College Conference of Illinois and Wisconsin team in balloting by conference coaches. Junior fullback Keith Viggers was named to the All-CCIW first team. NCC players named to the CCIW second team were Kyle Brown, Dave Witt, Brian Dennison and Tom Stark.

Run For Personal Best

The men's cross country team, under the coaching of Al Carius, had yet another successful season, capturing the CCIW Conference title for the fifteenth consecutive year. Led by senior co-captains Doug Hearn and Joel Bowman, the team won six of its eight pre-conference meets, including the North Central College Invitational. The team went on to win Regionals and qualify for Nationals. This year's women's cross country team, under coach Eric Simon, and led by senior co-captains Rhonda Bayles and Costella Green, finished second in conference and seventh in Regionals.

Soccer '88
Kickin' For Victory

The 1988 Cardinal Soccer team finished the year with a final record of 8-11. This record led the team to a third place standing in the conference. North Central was well represented by the three captains: Andy Wattles, Stan Mietus, and Tony Szabo. Special recognition went to: Dave Bozarth for Most Valuable player-offense, Tony Szabo for Most Valuable player-defense, and Matt Maher for Most Improved. Lead by Coach Dan Palmer for the fourth year, the soccer team finished with 33 goals for the season.

Bump, Set: Victory

Dreams may not always come true, but they do come close. This year's North Central women's Volleyball team had quite a successful season. The team had an overall record of 24 wins and 20 losses and dominated with a conference record of 10 victories and 3 upsets.

Leading our volleyball team to a strong season, North Central's captains were Michelle Johnson and Lynnea Loudenbeck. Junior Suzie Boehm and senior Lynnea Loudenbeck had a great season because the two were selected for the First-Team in Conference.

Moving Upward

This year's mens basketball team was hot! They were 1st place in the CCIW and went on to play at Nationals. Overall their record was 17 wins and 13 losses. In conference their record was 13 wins and 3 losses. Junior Rob Brown was named All American. Mike Roy, Pete Rochford, and Mike Patterson made the All-Conference teams. For being such a young team, the fighting Cardinals really showed the crowds. Many games came down to the last minute with the Cardinals pulling off a win.

Women Hoopsters

The women's basketball team held their own this year under the coaching of Kim Hansen. The lady Cardinals were 5th place in Conference with a standing of 8 wins and 8 losses. Overall the women had 15 wins and 8 losses. The team was a young team, but they were good. In January the women had problems with injuries. But in February the women really bounced back with wins in their last six games. Junior Carolyn Coffey made the second team for Conference. The lady Cardinals also led the conference in free throw percent.

Once again the swim team was in fine form. Although they are small in size, they are still very powerful. Two swimmers qualified for Nationals, these two are Mark Townsend and Laura Williamson. These swimmers raced against such schools as Millikin, Augustana, and Illinois Benedictine College. Laura Williamson said, "I am happy with the way things turned out this year, and I am looking forward to next year," when asked about her season.

Pin A Win

This season the Cardinal wrestlers did very well in their meets. Sophomore Bryant Clark had 28 wins and 12 losses. There were three freshman who finished over 500, which means they won more than they loss. Dan Franch was second in Conference, while John Mazur was third along with Sean Eggenberger. Sorry to say though that no one qualified for Nationals.

The Fast and The Strong

The 1989 indoor track season started slowly with the alumni meet and progressed into a national caliber team. Twelve athletes qualified for the indoor NCAA Division III meet held in Brunswick, Maine. During the season, North Central competed against such teams as Purdue, Notre Dame, and University of Illinois. The women were coached by Marcy Thurwachter, and the men were coached by Al Carius. Both the men and women had very successful seasons.

ORGANIZATIONS

The Motivating Story

The Governing Backbones Of NCC

Student Executive Board, the governing body of Student Association directed much of its energy this year to raising awareness of the issues on campus. The board met every other week to discuss student concerns and activities. The College Union Activities Board kept up the tradition of a wide variety of activities. We were entertained, amused, and amazed thanks to CUAB. Freshman Class Board initiated the freshmen to the organization of NCC. They shared with the needy by sponsoring a basket drive and had a "Kiss" sale for Valentine's Day.

Fourth Row: Judy Thorpe, Pam Salik, Pam Gilbert, Tracy Fencl, Patty Nelson, Kara Blachinsky, Scott Wendt, Amy Seitz, Vickie Rempert.

How About That Spirit!!

This year was filled with fun activities sponsored by these organizations. The group with the most spirit was Residence Hall Assocation. At their conference North Central won the small college spirit award. WONC was always busy giving away prizes with all their fun contests. Minority Student Assocaiton really changed this year. The group sponsored many cutural activities for the student body. A gospel choir concert and a moment of silence for Martin Luther King's birthday were just two examples of their actions. All in all, these three groups had a great year.

Minority Student Assocation: Tricia Williams, Angel Collins, Allyson Collins, Dernea' Michaux, Cheryl Lambert. Second Row: Jessica Porter, Altesha Brack, Alixe Tyus, Dawn Brooks, Sonya Garnett. Third Row: Walter Levertt, Terri Wardlaw, Rob Brown, Sandy Barnett.

Third Row: Jeff Zoephel, Jerry Duttlinger, Roger Werries, Erik Kanter, John Harrington, Curt Vollman, Steve Shute.

Catch NCC'S Super Sound

The choir and the pep band really gave NCC music to its ears. The choir is a class taken by those students interested in music. Pete Martinez is the director. They had a couple melodic concerts in Pfeiffer. The pep band, under the direction of Dr. David Horner, provided half-time entertainment at all the home basketball games. The band really increased in size this year. Both groups really entertained the crowds.

Business Or Pleasure??

Polis is North Central's political science organization. This year they sponsored their annual canned food drive, Model United Nations, and some students even traveled to New York with Dr. Fronlick. Students in Free Enterprise were also very busy this year. Events they conducted were a 50's cafe in Kaufman and a pizza party. They met weekly to discuss the national debt and the problems with the economy. American Marketing Association was also busy with the business world. Activities they sponsored were the coupon book, speakers, and even an AMA week.

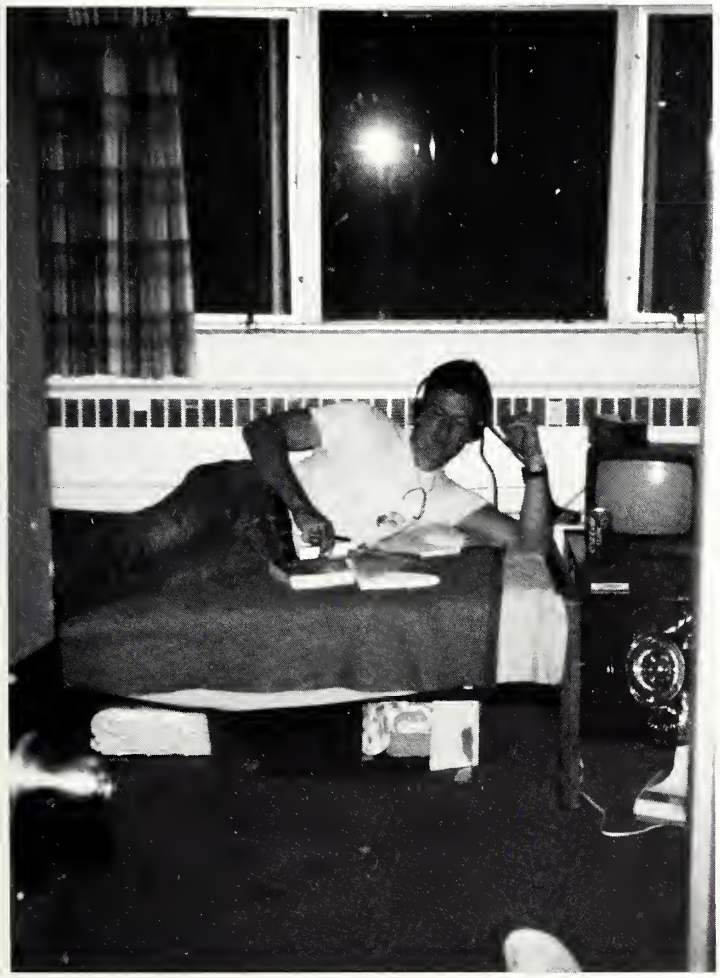
American Marketing Association: Kevin Enke, Rob Brown, Elizabeth Boone, Christine Lenz, Laureen Moore, LaPage Carducci Jolen Lamp, Jason Miller, Tracy Fencl, Bob Deboer, Gwen Glaser, Julie Jacque, Randy Cobbs.

Education Is Their Key

Student Leader Association for Teacher Education provided the opportunity for future teachers to become aware of drug problems within the classroom. The five-week program answered valuable questions related to substance abuse. The Math Club concentrated on expanding their knowledge of mathematical concepts and enjoying one another's company. A newly recognized organization this year was the History Club. Their goal was to heighten the campus' awareness of historical events and this was done by featuring a calendar full of important events in history.

SLATE: Pam Gerardy, John Harrington, Mary Benson.

Math Club: Tricia Lightfoot, Badih Ghusayni, Chuck Linneman, Tracy Weber. Second Row: Rosemary Petryk, Jane Lang, Stacy Marinier, Kris Thiemke.



History Club: Chris Kessler, Wendy Weissenstein. Second Row: Chan Dobberstein, Ed Mungai, Bob Kossak.

Always Coming And Going

What two organizations do not live on campus? Yes, it is the Commuter Information Association and the Non-Traditional Students who attend classes here at North Central, but do not live on campus. These students come from far and near to be a part of this special kind of place. Both of these organizations were very busy this term. They usually meet in the Cage or the Reading Room. Some events they have sponsored are a ski trip, speakers, and seminars. The CIA also came out with a handy, dandy handbook. Both had a successful year.

Non-Traditional Student Organization: Karen Cook, Robert Trudeau.

Commuter Information Association

. . . And More Organizations

These three organizations are quite different, but nonetheless they are important. International Club spent a lot of time getting together and planning different events. Intramurals is always a popular activity. These people plan the volleyball, basketball, softball, bowling activities that get the student body athletically involved. Tri-Beta is the honorary biological fraternity here at North Central. Once again they had their annual Cheese and Tea reception, which went over well. All three organizations played an important role.

International Club: Kris Berglund, Sandy Speed, Teresa Holmes, Cindy Richards. Second Row: Jean Dunham, Quyen Huynh, Jenny Mehlan, Brenda Gal, Caprice Melling. Third Row: Rebecca Brown, Reina Nakagawa, Zoltan Varro, Fujiyo Shibata, Christine Lenz, Valarie Dehant.

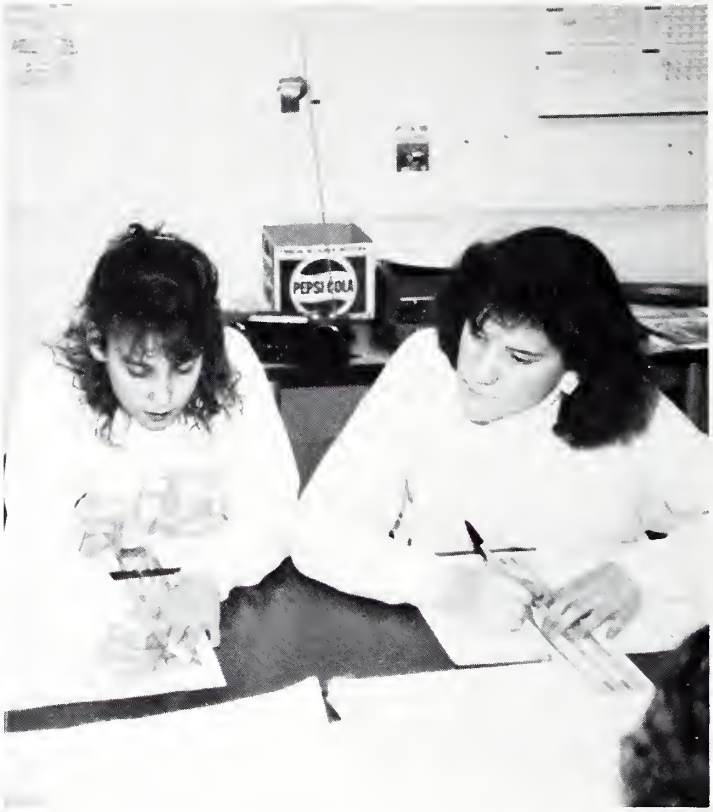
The Faces Behind The Scenes.

The Spectrum and the Chronicle are North Central's weekly writers. The Spectrum is the diary which contains all of our college memories. These memories are put out yearly, and has quite an abundance of information. On the other hand, the Chronicle is put out every other week with up to date information from the community, college and the nation. Every week these writers get together to brainstorm ideas in order for the college student to remember all those memories twenty years from now.



Spectrum: Laura Rink, Sarah Wright, Pam Salik, Tracy Fencl, Bridget Schager. Second Row: Sandy Overmyer, Trish Wilcox, Kim Koval, Tracy Brinkmeier, Pam Rimmele, Rhonda Presswood.

Chronicle: Pam Salik, Amy Larson. Second Row: Kathy Maurer, Mary Weber.

They Share By Caring

New Visions filled their year with many appearances in various churches and organizations throughout the state. Through their song and story they shared with many. The Fellowship of Christian Athletes held their weekly meetings in order to provide a chance for people to come together and spend some time talking with each other minus the strains of a formal setting.

Give Us A V-I-C-T-O-R-Y!!

The fighting Cardinal's worked hard this year with a strong squad in their corner. Leading their fans in cheers and chants, the cheerleaders made the school gatherings complete. But don't forget the Poms! Their dance routines at the half-times of football and basketball games kept the fans in the stands and a toe-tappin'. One highlight of the year was seeing the dads boogie down with their daughters on Dad's Day, held in November.

THE STORY ENDS

As I look back upon this year, I see many happy times filled with my family and friends. I feel that one of my biggest accomplishments so far has been being in charge of the yearbook. I will remember these days forever. As I look back, I realize there are many people I need to thank. First I would like to thank Jostens for publishing this book, and for Jim Bull who is our representative. Haltermans, our photographers, deserve my thanks for taking all our pictures. Also thank you to Brad Johnson, Jim Strong, and the Public Relations Office for their pictures and time. Barb Miller and my terrific staff deserve the biggest thank you. I could not have done this without you. Mom, Dad, Doug and Michele have given me support throughout the year, and I appreciate it. Dan Baker has been my "muscles" this year, and I thank him for all his help. Last, but not least, I thank my roommate Laura Rink for her endless support. She has listened to my problems and has been there when I needed her. Finally, I would like to thank you, North Central College, for giving me this chance. I have enjoyed being editor. And now I give to you . . . The Rest of The Story.

Sincerely yours,

Pam Salik
